[XXVth YEAR.] THE [No. 1297.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JULY 19, 1770.

VIENNA, April 7.

WE learn from the Frontiers of Turkey, that a Camp of about 140,000 Turks is forming in the Environs of Conſtantinople; that in the Capital alone 30,000 Turks had taken Arms; and that for Security Sake the greateſt Part of the Grand Signior's Treaſure has been carried from the Seraglio to a Fortreſs, ſituated Three Days Journey from the City.

NAPLES (Italy) April 10. There remains no Doubt that the Ruſſians have made a Deſcent in the Morea, many Perſons here having received Letters that confirm the News: Among others is the following, dated from Corfou the 13th of March laſt. "Fourteen Ruſſian Ships have landed at Maina; 18,000 Lacedemonians have made an Irruption in different Parts of the Morea, and carried off all the Inhabitants of the Country. They have taken Poſſeſſion of each Place reſpectively, and cut in Pieces all the Turks that oppoſed them. The greateſt Slaughter was at Patras, where the Turks were more numerous than elſewhere, and where they made greater Reſiſtance, they being Maſters of the Fortreſs. Upon this Occaſion many of the Turks embraced Chriſtianity. The Garriſon were almoſt all put to the Sword, the Number that eſcaped being very ſmall."

LONDON, April 28.

The Hampſhire Eaſt-Indiaman, which arrived laſt Week, left Bengal the 9th of December, and the annexed Province, in profound Peace. Brigadier General Richard Smith, Commander in Chief of the Forces in Bengal, is come to England in that Ship, and laſt Wednesday was with the Court of Directors, when the Chairman, in the Name of the Court aſſembled, expreſſed their Senſe of his Services abroad in the higheſt Terms of Approbation; more particularly with regard to his unwearid Attention in forming their Troops to ſuch a State of Diſcipline and Regularity, as rendered them reſpectable to all the Powers of Indoſtan; and at the ſame Time for conducting himſelf with ſo much Moderation and Addreſs with the Princes of the Country, as to prevent any Occaſion of Rupture or Hoſtility.

Fourteen Ruſſian Ships have landed near 2000 Men at the Port Cailles, ſituate at the Point of Cape Metepan, in the Morea. This Corps, which has been joined by a Number of Greeks, has taken Poſſeſſion of Maina, Calamata, and ſeveral other Places, without Bloodſhed.

The Commandant of the Ruſſian Fleet has publiſhed in theſe Parts a Manifeſto, in which the Empreſs ſets forth, "That her Duty and Religion had engaged her to ſend her Troops to aſſiſt the Greeks to ſhake off the Turkiſh Yoke, and to re-eſtabliſh the Grecian Empire. Her Majeſty promiſes her Protection, Rewards and Honours to ſuch of the Inhabitants as ſubmit with a good Grace; but, on the other Hand, threatens all thoſe who take Part with her Enemies with the utmoſt Rigours of War."

Letters from Bourdeaux bring an Account of a terrible Accident that happened there on Sunday the 8th Inſtant, by the raiſing of the Waters of the Garroue. The River was full of Shallops and ſmall Veſſels, laden with the Goods and Moveables of poor People. A large Tree, borne down by the Violence of the Current, broke the Cable of an old Hulk, which ſet adrift Five or Six Ships, and theſe drew along with them a hundred of thoſe ſmall Craft, which were all driven towards the Sea. The Sight was dreadful. The Crews of many of theſe Veſſels happened to be aſhore; thoſe who were on board could do nothing but pray to God to have Mercy upon them. Moſt of the ſmall Craft periſhed with all thoſe on board; Three or Four of the Ships were entirely ſunk, and every one of the reſt were either run aground, or ſhared the Fate of thoſe that periſhed. The whole Loſs is eſtimated at Six Millions of Livres.

Thurſday, at Hicks's-Hall, a true Bill of Indictment was found againſt the Author of the Whiſperer, a Bench Warrant was iſſued out for apprehending him, and ſtrict Search is making to bring him to Trial.

War Office, April 30. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the following Lords and Gentlemen to be General Officers, as undermentioned, viz.

May 8. It is aſſerted, that the parliamentary Enquiry into the late Diſturbances at Boſton in New-England, muſt be ſuſpended till the Arrival of ſome Papers in Anſwer to thoſe lately diſpatched for a reſpectable Perſonage here.

We are informed, that Governor Bernard will embark for his Government of Maſſachuſetts Bay, on board of One of the Men of War, appointed to convey Four Regiments to North-America, Preparations, it is ſaid, being actually now making by his Excellency for that Purpoſe.

We are aſſured, that at the Council, with regard to the preſent State of Affairs in America, very coercive Means were adviſed and adopted, and are now preparing to be employed.

The future Reſources of the Boſtonians, by calling in the People from the neighbouring Towns to aſſiſt them in their late adopted Meaſures, is, we hear, to be prevented, by cutting off the Communication of the Town and Country by a Fort, which can be ſo erected, as to anſwer that End effectually.

It is ſaid, that it has been determined on, in Caſe any further Violence ſhall have been committed at Boſton, before the Arrival of the freſh Troops, that all the Inhabitants ſhall be deprived of their Fire-arms.

It is ſaid that the Miniſtry are ſo much diſſatisfied with the Lieutenant Governor of a certain Colony, in regard to his Conduct on a late Occaſion, that he will ſpeedily be recalled.

It is rumoured, that the chief Governor of a certain Colony, on his being lately required to repair to the ſame, was ſo much afraid to comply with the Demand, that he begged Leave to retire on a Penſion, which was refuſed.

It is aſſerted at the Weſt End of the Town, that his Grace the Duke of Ancaſter will be appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and that his Grace the Duke of Beaufort will ſucceed him as Maſter of the Horſe to the King.

Both Houſes are expected to ſit late every Night next Week, till they break up for the preſent Seſſion. On which Account it may reaſonably be inferred, that Affairs of great Importance are to be agitated.

The Journals of the Houſe of Lords, May 1. (inſerted in the Papers) mention, that the Earl of Chatham preſented to the Houſe a Bill, entitled, A Bill for reverſing the Adjudication of the Houſe of Commons, whereby John Wilkes, Eſq. has been adjudged incapable of being elected a Member to ſerve in that preſent Parliament, and the Freeholders of the County of Middleſex have been deprived of One of their legal Repreſentatives: The Bill was read the firſt Time: The ſecond Time it was objected to; and the Queſtion was put, and reſolved in the Negative 89 to 43, and afterwards the Bill was reſolved to be rejected.

The 43 proteſting Lords publiſhed their Diſſentient.

The proteſting Lords is now the Toaſt drank in all patriotic Companies.

A great Patriot of high Rank in his laſt Oration ſaid, that he conſidered the Freedom of Election, and the Right of petitioning the Throne, as the Eyes of the Conſtitution; that the one, in the Caſe of the Middleſex Election, had been totally put out; and the other, by a certain Anſwer to a late Remonſtrance, had received ſuch a Blow, that it had a very dangerous Film grown over it, and that it would require the Abilities of a very able political Oculiſt to remove it.

A certain great Man, in his Harangue on Friday, in a certain Society, ſpeaking of a certain Anſwer, ſaid that he did not mean any Thing perſonal to the baneful Advice that he deteſted and ſpoke againſt; not but that if the Adviſer would ſtep forth and declare himſelf, he ſhould then more perſonally announce his Sentiments. While he was ſpeaking the above, he had his Eye on a certain Wool pack, and Felix trembled.

It is reported, that Accounts have been received from Berlin of the Death of the King of Pruſſia; and that the Empreſs Queen has marched a grand Army into Sileſia to take that Country.

This Morning ſome Advices were received from his Majeſty's Conſul at Scanderoon, by the Way of Venice, which mention that a Revolt was premeditated in Syria and Paleſtine to throw off the Turkiſh Yoke.

We hear this Day the Earl of Chatham attended the Houſe of Peers, in order to introduce a Motion of great Importance, and it was expected the Houſe would ſit late.

We are informed, that Lord Chatham and his Adherents have had ſome ſingular Overtures made to them from a certain Quarter, which have been refuſed.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Wiltſhire.

Thurſday the laſt Day of the Seſſion, Part of the 5th and 38th, the 50th and 56th Regiments of Foot, did, in a moſt daring and inſulting Manner (contrary to Cuſtom at the Time of Seſſions, keep patrolling the Streets, with Drums beating and Fifes playing. At the Time the Court was ſitting they continued beating their Drums, &c. all along the front of the Town-Hall, or Court-Houſe, &c. After the Buſineſs of the Court had been impeded for ſome Time, Sir E. Bayntun, and the reſt of the Juſtices, ordered the Conſtables to deſire all the Soldiers to deſiſt from beating their Drums and playing their Fifes before the Court, but the Inſolence of the Soldiers was ſuch, that inſtead of paying due Reſpect to the Order of the Court, they made no Apology, but kept on beating their Drums and playing their Fifes; and, in my humble Opinion, if the Court had offered to puniſh them for diſobeying the Order of all the Magiſtrates, we might have had another Boſton Affair in the Town of Devizes."

Sunday laſt the Right Hon. the Lord Mansfield received the Sacrament at Queen's-Square Chapel, to qualify him as Speaker of the Houſe of Lords.

Thurſday the 17th Inſtant is fixed for proroguing both Houſes of Parliament, and putting an End to the preſent Seſſion.

May 10. We hear that ſtrict Orders have been given, that no Perſon, of what Rank ſoever, ſhall be allowed in future to ſell out of the Army, that did not purchaſe into it.

The following Noblemen are now toaſted by all the Sons of Liberty, viz. Chatham, Portland, Plymouth, Rockingham, Abingdon, Boyle, Grolvenor, Stanhope, Ponſonby, Suffolk, Richmond, Radnor, Fitzwilliam, Archer, Temple, Torrington, Rutland, John Bangor, Wycombe, Forteſcue, Huntingdon, Tankerville, Abergavenny, King, Ferrers, Lyttleton, Bolton, Camden, Coventry, Buckinghamſhire, Scarborough, Manchester, Northumberland.

It was aſſerted the other Day, by a patriotic Earl, "that the Minds of Three-fourths of the People were notoriouſly alienated from their Allegiance, and that they were almoſt ready to prove it by their Actions." To which a certain Duke replied, "If that nominal Majority were to draw their Swords in their Confidence, he would riſk his own Head on their finding themſelves confoundedly miſtaken."

It is ſaid to be in Agitation to allow, by a public Act of the City of London, 1000l. a Year out of the City Chamber, to Mr. Wilkes, for public Service.

Yeſterday a great Number of People aſſembled in the Lobby of the Houſe of Commons, and the Avenues adjoining, in Conſequence of a Report which had been ſpread that Mr. Alderman Wilkes intended to go thither that Day to claim a Seat. The Croud was ſo great, that the Members were hindered from paſſing and repaſſing; whereupon the Gallery was ordered to be locked, and the Lobby to be cleared; but Mr. Wilkes did not go to the Houſe.

The State of the Colonies came under Conſideration on Tueſday, and very warm Debates enſued, much Altercation, and great Variety of Sentiment; Col. B—re was very ſevere upon the Military, and more ſo upon the M———y, for inveſting them with diſcretionary Powers, independent of the Civil Magiſtrate, which was, to all Intents and Purpoſes, eſtabliſhing a Military Government in the Colonies. The L——d M———r was very warm; and, in the Heat of Debate, dropped ſome Expreſſions that gave Occaſion to thoſe who differed from him to ſmile: "Aye, aye, ſays he, you may laugh, but, I tell you, theſe Proceedings are contrary to the Laws of God and Man." The Debate laſted till paſt Twelve, but we have not yet been able to learn the Reſult: An Evening Paper, indeed, ſays, that the Miniſtry have come to a Reſolution to ſend Five Regiments to America immediately. We are told, however, that no Perſon will be employed in his Majeſty's Revenue there, who has not been firſt employed in their Mother-Country, many of the preſent Diſorders taking their Riſe from the Ignorance of thoſe in Power with the Duties of the Offices committed to them.

The treacherous Practices of the French, in regard to our Aſiatic Poſſeſſions, will, we are informed, be ſhortly offered to the Conſideration of Parliament.

Yeſterday the Publiſher of an Evening Paper was brought to the Bar of an auguſt Aſſembly, for printing certain Proteſts; for which he was ordered to pay a Fine of 100l. and to ſuffer a Month's Impriſonment in Newgate.

Prince Wolonſki, the Ruſſian Ambaſſador at Warſaw, had received the following Particulars, concerning the Progreſs of the Ruſſian Affairs in the Morea; That the Imperial Fleet, conſiſting of 18 Men of War of the Line, ſome Frigates, and other ſmall Veſſels, had landed a large Quantity of Arms and Ammunition for the Uſe of the Inhabitants, who, having joined the Ruſſian Troops, had made themſelves Maſters of Calamatra, Myſiſtra, Ceron, and Mothon; and that after this Diſembarkation the Ruſſian Fleet had continued their Voyage to the Archipelago. 'Tis added, that the Greeks of Corfu and Cephalonia, and even the Jeſuits, had taken Refuge in the Ruſſian Army, being under the moſt terrible Apprehenſions of cruel Treatment from the common Enemy; that the Turks themſelves, who inhabit Greece, Macedonia, and Albania, being ſeized with a Panic, had declared their Willingneſs to ſubmit to her Czarinian Majeſty, and to pay her Tribute; that the famous Stephano, who commanded the Grecian and Ruſſian Army, after the firſt Advantages, thought only of fortifying the Places he had taken, and levying Troops, till the Arrival of ſome Ruſſian Succours, that were ſoon expected at Avlon: that he hath eſtabliſhed an Hoſpital for the Sick, and ſome Magazines at Maina; and that the Carpenters worked inceſſantly in building Three Greek Veſſels, One of 24 Guns and Two of 12 each, beſides Two others of 24 Guns each, to be in Readineſs at Albania, to take on board the expected Succours.

When the Nottingham, Capt. Smith, left Bengal, our Affairs there were in a State of the moſt perfect Tranquillity; the Revenues had been ſucceſsfully collected, and the Inveſtments made for the Ships of this Year are greater than were ever known, and ſo little apprehenſive were the Governor and Council of any Danger from the French and Country Power, that a Number of Troops were ordered to be diſbanded, which will ſave to the Company not leſs than Six Lack of Rupees per Annum.

It was this Morning reported on Change, that ſome very ſpirited Reſolutions are now taking with regard to Portugal; in Conſequence of which, freſh Inſtructions have been recently ſent to Mr. Lyttleton, our Ambaſſador at Liſbon.

It is rumoured, that Letters from Paris by the laſt Mail mention an Expreſs having been juſt ſent off with ſome very important Diſpatches for the French Ambaſſador at Conſtantinople, the Subject of which is ſaid to be, that the Court of Verſailles cannot think at preſent, of embroilling itſelf with the reſt of Europe, by openly taking Part with the Grand Signor.

All the Letters, Papers, &c. which can any Way lead to the tracing the Cauſes of a late melancholy Event at Boſton, are ordered to be laid before a reſpectable Society.

A patriotic Colonel, and Member of a political Club, has declared, both within and without Doors, to his Friends, that notwithſtanding his Anger againſt the late Murderers, he will coolly and impartially join with the Miniſtry in their Reſearches to bring to Light every Particular relative to that Tranſaction.

We hear, that a Day will be ſet apart for the above Purpoſe.

It is ſaid, that great Pains are taking by the Friends of Adminiſtration, to prevent the intended Appeal to the People, which is of ſuch a Nature, as may be productive of very ſerious Conſequences.

It is now ſaid, that Mr. Wilkes never intended to go to the Houſe in the Manner lately repreſented, though One of his Friends, more warm than wiſe, had counſelled him ſo to do, and afterwards propagated the Report.

B O S T O N, June 28.

We cannot give our Readers any Thing that can be depended on as to the Article of the Duty on Tea.—The Report at Falmouth was, that the Duty on Tea would be taken off this Seſſion of Parliament, and that they expected to have the Account by the next Poſt.—At Briſtol it was thought the Duty would not be taken off.—A few Days more will determine one Way or the other

A Letter from Connecticut mentions, that the univerſal Conſternation the Contents and Purport of the late Letter they received from the Trade at New-York gave the People of all Ranks there, was eaſier to be conceived than expreſſed, nor to be conceived but by thoſe who have been preſent at News of ſome publick Misfortune firſt ſpreading.

July 2. On Thurſday Morning laſt, one Ebenezer Cutler of Oxford came to Boſton, and pulling out ſome Quantity of Money, began Diſcourſes with ſeveral Perſons concerning buying Tea, and in ſpecial inſulted one of the Committee of Inſpection of Land-carriages at the South End, repeatedly declaring he would buy Tea, or what he pleaſed, and of whom he pleaſed, without Regard to any honourable Committee-men, or any other Men. In the Afternoon he returned to the South End, where he began the Farce, and boaſtingly ſhewed a Bag of Tea, containing about 12 Pounds; on which the Committee-man aforeſaid grew a little more ſerious with him, and told him, he thought the Offences he offered him as an Individual deſerved Reſentment, but when through him he meant to inſult the Community, he looked upon himſelf in Honour obliged to inform the People of his Behaviour. Conſiderable paſſed on this Head, when he agreed to deliver the Tea into the Cuſtody of a Friend, till the Trade ſhould be open, and he departed for that Time. About Four o'Clock on Friday Morning, Two Waggons were heard driving haſtily out of Town, which being detected in little Cambridge, on Examination, were found laden with Goods imported (as he ſays) by Theophilus Lillie, contrary to the Merchants Agreement. Mr. Cutler, tho' he ſeemed very obſtreperous at firſt, conſented to return to Town with the Goods, and put them under the Care of the Committee of Inſpection, there to be ſtored till a general Importation ſhould take Place. Mr. Lillie's Concern in theſe Goods is very apparent, he having hired a Horſe and Chaiſe at Charles-Town to go to Oxford the ſame Day, and we hear that the Inhabitants of that Place have teſtified their great Diſpleaſure at the Man who hired the Horſe and Carriage to a perfidious Importer.

N E W - Y O R K, July 9.

A Copy of a Letter from the Merchants and Traders in the County of Eſſex, New-Jerſey, to the Committee of Merchants in New-York, in Anſwer to their Letter, deſiring a Congreſs of Merchants to meet at Norwalk.

Elizabeth-Town, June 8, 1770.

"GENTLEMEN,

YOUR Favour of the 2d Inſtant we have received and conſidered; before the Receipt of which, the Merchants, Traders and Freeholders of this County, being called together by publick Advertiſements, unanimouſly reſolved to ſupport the Non-importation Agreement to the utmoſt of their Power; a Copy of which Reſolution, ſigned by us and many others, is here incloſed, which ſufficiently diſcovers their and our Sentiments.—As to the Matter of ſending Deputies to Norwalk, we are ſorry ſuch a Propoſal ſhould have been made. Had theſe Colonies never entered into any Reſolutions, a Propoſal for Deputies to concert a general Plan might have been very proper; but now, as our Honour and Faith is pledged to each other, ſhall we leave the noble ſpirited Inhabitants of Charles-Town, and the other faithful Colonies, to ſtand or fall by themſelves? Should you have invited the whole Continent to the Congreſs, and ſhould they reſolve to break their Agreement, yet this would not have been juſtifiable. Our Friends on the other Side the Water have a Right to be conſulted. 'Tis not our Cauſe only but theirs alſo, which is now depending upon keeping or breaking our Agreement. Our Friends in England, relying upon our Honour and Faith, have engaged in the Cauſe, and acted upon our Agreement. They have pledged their Honour for us, and ſhall we now meet to conſult, whether we will deceive and leave them the Scorn of their Enemies, who are alſo the Enemies of Liberty and Juſtice?—Shall we meet to conſult, whether we have Honour, or Faith, or publick Virtue? We cannot agree to it. If you had propoſed a Meeting for ſtrengthening and further ſecuring the Virtue and Reſolutions of the Colonies, we ſhould have joined you; but to meet and conſult whether we will be faithful is a Reproach to us. We flatter ourſelves, that, if you will be pleaſed to reconſider the Matter, you will ſee the Abſurdity and lay aſide the Propoſal; which is the earneſt Deſire of, Gentlemen,

Your very humble Servants."

We have Authority to aſſure the Publick, that in the Borough of Elizabeth, in the County of Eſſex, East New-Jerſey, upwards of 100,000 Yards of Linen and Woollen Cloth have been manufactured there during the laſt Year.

On Monday the 18th of laſt Month, there was a general Meeting of the Trade in Boſton, when they came into ſeveral Reſolutions, which were unanimouſly agreed to. The Reſolves chiefly relate to the Merchants of Portſmouth in New-Hampſhire, ſeveral of whom (notwithſtanding the Merchants through the Continent have engaged to ſuſpend their Importations from Great-Britain, with a Deſign to obtain Redreſs of Grievances) loſt to all Feelings of Patriotiſm and the common Intereſt, have lately (and at a moſt important Criſis) imported large Quantities of Britiſh and East India Wares, which are now expoſed for Sale, with a Deſign to enrich themſelves, and thereby have meanly taken Advantage of the generous Self-denial of their Fellow Merchants through the Provinces: And as the Inhabitants of Portſmouth have failed in not properly expreſſing their Deteſtation and Reſentment at a Procedure ſo infamouſly ſelfiſh, and directly tending to fruſtrate and render abortive the virtuous Exertions of all North-America, to obtain Relief of our great and common Grievances, as their Siſter Colonies had juſt Reaſon to expect.——It was therefore.

"Reſolved, That we will have no Trade or commercial Intercourſe whatſoever with the Merchants of the Colony of New-Hampſhire, or any of its Inhabitants, while they are thus counteracting the laudable Exertions of the other Colonies for the common Good. And as it is with Pleaſure we perceive a patriotic Spirit widely diffuſed, and nobly ardent, uniting and diſpoſing the ſeveral Colonies to aid each other with Alacrity, when the common Cauſe requires it, which muſt enſure, by the Bleſſing of Heaven, the Proſperity of the whole; we have juſt Grounds to rely upon it, that the Inhabitants of Salem, Marblehead, Newbury, Ipſwich, Plymouth, Nantucket, and other trading and fiſhing Towns in this Province, as alſo of the Colonies and Provinces of Connecticut, New-York, New-Jerſey, Philadelphia, Maryland, Virginia, the Carolina's, &c. will heartily concur with us in this Reſolution."

Extract of a Letter from the Mole, St. Nicola, in the Iſland of Hiſpaniola, June 8, 1770.

"Since my laſt, of the 31ſt ultimo, we have had in this Iſland an Earthquake, I believe equal to that of Liſbon; it happened on Sunday Evening the 3d Inſtant, at 7 o'clock; the Shock was felt in this Port but did no Damage, but at Port au Prince it has laid every Houſe to the Ground, excepting One that is built of Wood, by Roſſeau, upon an old Ship; about 500 Whites beſides Negroes have loſt their Lives; all the Plantations in the Plain of Cul du Sac have ſuffered in the like Manner, a little Village in the Plain of Leoganne and that Town have ſuffered in the ſame Manner; only Two Houſes remain ſtanding in the whole Town; Prudhommes is One of them, which you know is a ſtrong wooden Houſe; Petit Guaves and the adjacent Plain have equally ſuffered. We have no Account yet from the South Side of the Mole. St. Marks, Port de Paix, the Cape, and Fort Dauphin, have eſcaped from any Damage.

A very high Mountain, ſtanding cloſe by the Shore, was thrown into the Sea, which cauſed a Swell to riſe to the Height of 130 Feet above the common Surface; Another large Mountain, about Two Miles from Portau Prince, back in the Country, was blown up into the Air, leaving a large Baſon of Water Three or Four Fathoms deep. Captains Malbone and Stanton felt the Shock pretty hard at the Mole, about 130 or 140 Miles from Portau Prince, but no Damage was ſuſtained at that Place.

P. S. Since the above we have had Letters from the Cape, which ſay that the Plantation Works in that Plain have conſiderably ſuffered, and ſome Houſes, though few, in the Town."

At the Iſland of Bona Viſta, about Three Months ago, a Dutch Eaſt Indiaman, with 360 Men, was caſt away; Sixty of the Men died of Sickneſs at St. Jago, and Ten Capt. Holmes ſhipped as Seamen, and has brought in with him.

Capt. Marſhall, from the Streights, informs us, that there was great Sickneſs among the Ruſſian Seamen in that Part of the World, and that one of their Frigates was caſt away in entering the Harbour of Leghorn. The 14th of June, in Latitude 33, 8, Longitude 6[illegible] Captain Marſhall ſpoke with the Brig Amity's Conſumption, Capt. Clark, from St. Kitts, for London, 16 Days out; and on the 17th, in Latitude 34, 15, Longitude 61, 30, with Two large Ships from Lisbon for Bourdeaux.

We hear that Anſwers to the Propoſals from this City, for altering the Non-importation Agreement, and opening the Trade to Great-Britain, except for Tea, or other Articles on which a Duty is exacted, have been received from Boſton, Philadelphia, &c. and that they have unanimouſly and abſolutely rejected the ſaid Propoſal—being reſolutely determined firmly to adhere to the Non-importation Agreement as it ſtands; and that the People of Connecticut and New-Jerſey have determined to have no farther Dealings with this Place, unleſs the ſaid Agreement is ſtrictly maintained. And as the Condition upon which the People here ſigned for the propoſed Alteration was, that Boſton and Philadelphia approved and came into the Meaſure, their Refuſal puts an End to the Meaſure propoſed, ſo that the Non-importation Agreement remains in full Force, and doubtleſs muſt continue ſo till the End is obtained.

A N N A P O L I S, JULY 19.

On Monday the 16th Inſtant departed this Life, Robert Lloyd, Eſq; of Queen-Anne's County; his Death was occaſioned by a fall from his Carriage, which melancholy Accident he ſurvived but a few Hours. At the Time of his Deceaſe he was Speaker of the Honourable the Lower-Houſe of Aſſembly of this Province, to which elevated Station he was ſome Years ſince promoted by the unanimous Suffrage of the Members of that Aſſembly, for his inflexible Integrity, and unremitting Zeal for the Intereſt and Happineſs of his Countrymen. In this Office he demeaned himſelf with a ſuitable Dignity, and ſtill actuated by thoſe Principles that influenced his former Conduct, he perſevered to the lateſt Period of his Exiſtence in the ſame laudable Purſuits, which had ſo eminently recommended him to that Station—Yet he was not more admired in public than private Life, for his amiable Condeſcenſion and humane Diſpoſition, which together with the many other excellent Qualities he poſſeſſed, rendered him a kind and indulgent Father, a tender and affectionate Relation, a warm and ſteady Friend, a chearful Inſtructive and agreeable Companion, a valuable Neighbour, a liberal Benefactor, and muſt endear his Memory to every Lover of Virtue.—Quando ullum invenient parem?
